Tuesday, September 20, 7:00pm, Q264, SJU

“Caravans of Sorrow, Caravans of Hope”: Immigration and the Latino/a Struggle for Social Justice

Dr. James Patiño, Professor of Chicano and Latin Studies
U of M - Twin Cities

Tuesday, October 11, 7:00pm, Q170, SJU

Latino Politics in the Era of Bad Feelings

Dr. Adrian Pantoja, Professor of Political Studies/Chicano Studies
Pitzer College, CA

Tuesday, November 1, 5:30pm, Brother Willie’s Pub, SJU

Latino and Latin American Students Speak About the 2016 Elections

CSB/SJU Student Panel

LLAS 270 Reading Circle

Students who plan to attend all events may register for "LLAS 270: Readings in Latino/Latin American Studies." This can be taken for either one or zero credits, pass/fail. Requirements are: attend all events and write a short (3-4 pages) reflective essay. Registrants for LLAS 270 will receive 1 academic credit. Students may also choose to register for 0 credits which does not require an essay. Interested students should contact Dr. Bruce Campbell, Director of the Latino/Latin American Studies program, at bdcampbell@csbsju.edu. Students should specify whether they wish to register for 1 or 0 credit.