Cultural Citizenship: Latino Contributions to U.S. Public Life

Tuesday, February 7, 7pm, Quad 264, SJU

Palabristas, Latino Wordslingers (Spoken Word Performance)

The Palabristas, Latino Wordslingers are a collective of poets, spoken word artists, and writers of Chicano/Latino heritage founded in Minnesota in 2003.

Thursday, March 30, 6pm, Gorecki 204

Salsa Rueda Workshop

Dance instructor Maria LaNave will introduce us to Salsa Rueda (or Rueda de Casino), a form of salsa dancing originating in Cuba but popularized in the United States.

Thursday, April 6, Time/Location TBD

Community Mural Project Conversation with Gustavo Lira and Students

Gustavo Lira is a professional artist and educator living in Minneapolis. His approach has been to create public art with community involvement, specifically working with young people from different cultural backgrounds in richly diverse environments.