AMERICA THE BEAUTIFUL
O beautiful for spacious skies,
For amber waves of grain
For purple mountain majesties
Above the fruited plain!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown they good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.
O beautiful for patriot dream
That sees beyond the years
Thine alabaster cities gleam,
Undimmed by human tears!
America! America! God shed his grace on thee,
And crown thy good with brotherhood
From sea to shining sea.

Words: Katherine L. Bates, 1859-1929, alt.
Music: MATERNA, Samuel A. Ward, 1848-1903

ALMA MATER
High above the Sagatagan,
Towering o’er the oak and pine,
Proudly stands our alma mater,
Ever let her beacon shine.
Alma mater we’ll be loyal
Ever love and praise thy name.
Hail, all hail Saint John’s our mother,
We thy honor will proclaim.

Words: Eldred Cleare, SJU ’43
Music: Innocent Gertken, OSB, and Dominic Keller, OSB
arr. Axel Theimer, SJU ’71

FOR THE BEAUTY OF THE EARTH
For the beauty of the earth,
for the beauty of the skies,
for the love which from our birth
over and around us lies,
Refrain: Christ our God, to thee we raise this our hymn of grateful praise.
For the joy of human love,
brother, sister, parent, child,
friends on earth, and friends above,
for all gentle thoughts and mild,
Refrain
For each perfect gift of thine
to the world so freely giv’n,
faith and hope and love divine,
peace on earth and joy in heav’n,
Refrain

Words: Folliot Sandford Pierpoint (1835-1917), alt.
Music: DIX 77.77.77, arr. from Conrad Kocher (1786-1872)

PHI BETA KAPPA

Established in 1776, Phi Beta Kappa, as the oldest and most prestigious academic honor society, celebrates and advocates excellence in the liberal arts and sciences. Its campus chapters invite for induction the most outstanding arts and sciences students at America’s leading colleges and universities. The Society sponsors activities to advance these studies — the humanities, the social sciences, the fine arts, and the natural sciences — in higher education and in society at large. About 10 percent of the nation’s institutions of higher learning have Phi Beta Kappa chapters and only about 10 percent of the arts and sciences graduates of these distinguished institutions are selected for Phi Beta Kappa membership. Each year, approximately one college senior in a hundred, nationwide, is invited to join.

The following students have been invited to the Phi Beta Kappa Academic Honors Society:

Cavin James Allen
Aidan John Becken
Kyle Robert Curphy
Jack Murphy Doyle
Hunter Bradley Fischer
Peyton Jordre Fischer
Ethan Matthew Huber
Peyton John Miller
Nolan Lawrence Morrey
Noah Marcel Presseller

THE SEAL OF SAINT JOHN’S UNIVERSITY

To most people the seal of the University is perhaps merely a design on a notebook or sweatshirt, but embodied in this little seal are all the principles for which Saint John’s University stands. It is therefore worthy of closer inspection. The first University seal was designed in 1934 by Reverend Angelo Zankl, OSB who had done considerable work in heraldry. At the time he was the head of the Saint John’s Art Department.

A quotation from Saint Paul, “Induamur Arma Lucis,” meaning “Let us put on the armor of light,” was chosen as the motto for the crest. This theme is represented symbolically by a shield on which is emblazoned the golden sun of learning and grace displacing the darkness of ignorance and sin. Around the shield is thrown the red scroll upon which the Latin phrase is printed in blue, giving the school colors of truth and courage. Under the shield in Roman numerals is printed the date of the foundation of the school, in 1857. Bordering this is the Latin name of the University and finally an old Roman-style border.

In 1988 the University seal was revised and simplified to afford greater clarity particularly when printed in smaller sizes. Care was given in revising the design to ensure that the principles embodied in the seal were maintained. The revision was executed by Br. Alan Reed, OSB who at the time, like Father Angelo in 1934, was head of the Art Department. Final touches were provided by graphic artist Donald Skoro of Minneapolis.

FLAGS ON DISPLAY

The U.S. Flag that is displayed today was given to Saint John’s University by Lt. Col. John T. Peterson (class of 1985), U.S. Marine Corps. The flag was flown on a MV-22 Osprey by Marine Medium Tiltrotor Squadron 162 over Al Anbar Province Iraq on September 28, 2008 while in support of Operation Iraqi Freedom 08.1.

The international flags displayed represent the individual countries of this year’s graduates.

VISION FOR THE SCHOOL OF THEOLOGY AND SEMINARY

• Openness to learning, inquiry, beauty, truth and difference.
• Respect for persons, tradition, creativity, experience, faith, reason and religious practice.

• Sacredness of God, being, truth, place, nature and knowledge.
• Passion for excellence, truth, learning, beauty, love and personal growth.
ACADEMIC REGALIA

The custom of wearing academic dress originated in the universities of the Middle Ages when a warm gown and hood were useful for scholars and clerics in unheated buildings. The distinctive apparel indicated the academic rank of its wearer. Most of the early academic garments were black, but by Renaissance times Oxford and Cambridge had added touches of color. The costumes worn at the universities of continental Europe became increasingly colorful. Academic caps of various shapes eventually superseded the hood as a head covering. At the end of the 19th century, American universities and colleges adopted a code for academic costumes and ceremonies. It is possible to recognize the degree granting institution, the degree, and the field of study of the person wearing academic regalia.

The gown designating the Bachelor of Arts or Bachelor of Science ordinarily is black with long, pointed sleeves. The master’s gown has oblong sleeves. Bell-shaped sleeves crossed with three wide bands of velvet indicate the doctor’s gown.

The greatest degree of symbolism is shown by the hood. The color and width of the velvet border indicate the degree and field of study. The length of the hood varies with the degree, from three feet for the bachelor’s to four feet for the doctor’s. The bachelor’s hood is somewhat pointed in shape; the doctor’s is rounded. The official colors of the institution conferring the degree line the hood. The Saint John’s University Bachelor of Arts hood is lined with cardinal red and blue and is banded with white velvet and the Bachelor of Science hood is lined with cardinal red and blue and is banded with yellow velvet. The color of the velvet strip on the hood indicates the field of study in which the degree was earned or granted. Some of the faculty will be wearing gowns with distinctive colors: Harvard’s crimson; Chicago’s and Minnesota’s maroon; Yale’s blue; Cornell’s red; Stanford’s bright red; Brown’s brown; Oxford’s black and red.

The purpose of academic costume and ceremonies is to celebrate formally the academic goals and achievements of an institution’s students, administration, faculty and staff.
