TIPS & TRICKS FROM DIRECTOR ATTINA!

Welcome to the 2023-2024 Housing Selection Season, Bennies!

Each year, housing selection allows us all to reflect on who we have become as a result of living in community with others. Through this time of reflection, here are some tips and tricks to make housing selection an exciting experience!

- Find roommates who have similar priorities and values. Use our new housing portal's roommate finding feature to get recommendation for Bennies who care about the things you do!

- Be open to a wide variety of experiences. Plans may change because a friend decides to take a different opportunity, or you may not be able to select your preferred housing. Use these changes to take counsel and welcome new people into your life with Benedictine hospitality.

- Stay connected to housing information by checking your email, visiting our website, attending FAQ sessions, following us on social media.

- Ask CSB Reslife all of your questions. We are here to help you get the most accurate information to all of your "what-if" questions.
